

2016 Annual Meeting

Member Businesses in Attendance: Boji Bay, Boji Junction, KUOO, City of Milford, Safeguard, The Three Sons MHR, United Community Bank, Dannatt Rentals, Lakes News Shopper, Rodeway Inn, Union Memorial, Milford Library, St. Joseph Catholic Church, Dick Co Cable, Creative Photography, Liberty Bank, Land Mark Lynnette's Flowers, Farmers Savings Bank

The annual meeting of the Milford Commercial Club was held Thurs., Jan. 14 at Mill Creek Restaurant, in Milford, with 21 businesses represented.

President Chris Hinshaw welcomed those in attendance and called the meeting to order. Beth Sorenson motioned with a second by Brandon of Boji Bay to approve the minutes from the Dec. 10, 2015 annual meeting. All ayes. Carried.

The Treasurers Report was reviewed. Rachel Sirola moved with a second by Bobbi Schmeling to approve the report. All ayes. Carried.

Wintergames- After discussion, it was decided to not hold a soup feed this year. One of our member businesses is hosting an event with soup and we did not want to compete with that business.

Pancake Feed - We will help the Boy Scouts with the pancake feed on Sat., Jan. 30 during Winter Games. A few volunteers will be needed to collect money from 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

Lakes Opolo - We have currently sold about 87 games we were hoping to have the games in time for the Winter Games events to sell. We will still set up our display of the proto type and try to generate interest and possibly sell some at winter games.

Membership report - We have currently 40 members. We will be contacting everyone who hasn't renewed.

Election- We have two positions open with two people seeking election to those positions. Nominations were sought from the floor. Karleen Noteboom moved that Rachel Sikora and Susan Reiser be unanimously elected, seconded by Russ Beckendorf. All ayes. Carried.

Good of the Order - The welcome committee will be welcoming new businesses to Milford on January 20th at 9 a.m. An email will go out to the members with this information. We ask that you consider joining us, this will only take about 45 minutes for the 3 businesses we are welcoming.

Brandon updated those in attendance about Boji Bay and what is happening as far as the upcoming season, concerts, etc.

Motion to adjourn by Lynnette Cook. Second by Sharon Mayer. All ayes. Carried.
