

Milford Commercial Club
Annual Meeting
January 13, 2020

The evening began with a social time at 5:30 pm with sign in taking place at that time. Present at this meeting were Sharon Mayer, Brenda Harmon, Morgan and Betsy Stockdale, Kelsie Strum, Anna Opheim, Ben and Taryn Kurpgeweit, Dylan Ellis, Heidi Pearson, Jamie Billings, Danette Forbes, Laura Olson, Marisa Sidles, Erin Rohlfen, Lauron Rosacker, Tara Ford, Danielle Ries, Kelsey Bashore, Greg Jorgensen, Tom Brown, Samantha Van Ort, Don VanOrt, Blain Andera, Jenna Vanepere, Josh Snyder, Max Lundt, Lynn Lundt, Matt Mueller, Kami Eilers, Beth Henson, Brad and Laurie Simington, Pat Adams, Jill Sundall, Marcy Wittrock, Lynell Langel and Russ Mitchell.

A short business meeting was conducted. The first order of business was to elect two new officers. Tara Ford and Lauron Rosacker were on the ballot. There were no nominations from the floor. Russ and Marissa counted the ballots while the group approved the Secretary's report. A motion was made by Marisa and a second by Betsy to approve the Dec. minutes. A recap of 2019 was also provided for the membership.

The treasurer's report was provided but since treasurer, Susan was not available, a vote to approve was tabled until the February meeting.

Blaine Andera was present to give the Iowa Great Lakes Chamber report. He stated that the office is next to Chaplins in Arnolds Park. He highlighted some of the events that will be taking place at Winter Games this year like hammerschlagen, giant kites and ice sculptures besides traditional favorites. Merchandise is available at the Chamber office, The Three Sons, Boondocks and Hy-Vee. The Mcc sponsors the pancake breakfast with Boy Scout troop 170 making and serving the cakes on Saturday, Jan. 25 from 7:30-11am at the Arnolds Park Fire Station. $6.00 for all you can eat. Russ and Sharon will take the money.

Three new businesses were welcomed this evening. They were Boji Auto Repair, Boji Towing and Red Roses and Ivy. They are new members and we welcome them.

The results of the election put Tara Ford and Lauron Rosacker in as new board members of the MCC. Thank you to them and congratulations.

A motion to adjourn the business meeting and enjoy supper was made by Heidi with a second from Pat. Thank you to Mill Creek for a delicious supper, especially the desserts. Thank you to the members for their attendance.

Respectfully Submitted,
Sharon Mayer
MCC Secretary

